New Hope Arts' tradition showcases the wide variety of media, styles and interests of our artist members. Artists submit a work of their choice for juried awards. Always popular and diverse!

New Hope Arts exploration of the images began in 2014 with our series of Exposure juried shows. Other themed exhibitions include Jack Rosen's New Hope, showcasing Documentary Photographers.

Fiber, Fabric, Fashion NHArts popular runway fashion show opener and Off the Loom, and Weaving Re-Imagined are devoted to established and emerging designers and fiber artists.

Outdoor installations in New Hope began in 2003 with Robin Larsen's vision and local support to feature art throughout the Borough. Award recognition in 2005, the program has grown to feature over 80 artworks over the course of 20 years in changing displays. Our significant recognition over the years features New Hope in Sculpture magazine's annual Art in Public Places issue.
